WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 13, 1904.

Defends Her Negro Love Katie Joseph, the 15-year-old daughter of Perry Joseph, of Hollyville, Del., who was believed to have been beaten to death by a negro named Bowen, after being the victim of a serious crime, was located Saturday evening alive and well.

located Saturday evening alive and well.
She was living with the colored family
of Lambert Sturgiss, at Newark, Md., 36 miles from Georgetown, Del.
The girl is now in the hands of kindly white people, and will be restored to her parents. Many believe she is under a hypnotic spell, for the least sign from Rowen has a poculiar influence upon her Hypnotic spell, for the least sign from Bowen has a peculiar influence upon her. "It was my fault as much as Ned's," she exclaimed when found. "I don't want to go home. They wouldn't buy me clothes and they are harsh to me." She spoke in a hysterical manner and cried when told that it was reported Bowen had been arrested.

Bowen had been arrested.

Her father is a struggling faimer and could not afford fancy dresses. To leave home, it is declared, she was promised several new gowns and diamond rings.

Edward Bowen, the negro charged was surjected to the second several new gowns and diamond rings.

with the abduction of the girl, was sur-prised yesterday by C. C. Mumford, a prominent lumber merchant at Showells, 20 miles from Indian river hundred, Bowen's home. Mr. Mumford was armed with a repeating rifle. When confronted the negro trembled and said:

"She wanted to go away from home."

He admitted the girl attended a dance of colored people on July 4. Mumford continued to question him until the negrotations and desperate change broke. gro, taking a desperate chance, broke away and escaped. Bowen has lived the life of a hunted rat for the past five days. He has succeeded in evading his pur-suers, although nearly captured a score of times. Yesterday he was within rifle shot of the detectives at Showells, Md., but evaded the officers by crossing a small stream and hiding in a thicket. Sheriff John R. Steele, Constable Warrington and Detectives Francis and Radledge and a posse of citizens are hot on his chase, and declare that his capture is only a matter of a few hours.

Threats of speedy punishment are made by many, but the authorities have taken special precautions to protect their prisoner. A large throng is parading the streets in the vicinity of the little brick and frame prison in Georgetown, Del., awaiting the arrival of Sheriff steele, the detectives and armed citizens with their prisoner.

The action of the colored colony in harboring the girl and endeavoring to keep her whereabouts a secret led to threats of dire vengeance by the white population at Queponco, for miles around, and there is fear that a slight for miles additional provocation would start a riot.

France and the Vatican.

The Paris Matin says that eight days after the recall of M. Nisard, former French Ambassador at the Vatican, a number of French bishops received an order from Cardinal Vannutelli, acting for the Vatican, to tender their resigna-tions by return of mail. The bishops, it is added, consulted the minister of public worship and Premier Combes, who directed them not to tender their resignations, on the ground that the concordat required the assent of the State before removals were enforced. Thereafter the papal secretary of State, Cardi-nal Merry del Val, threatened the bishops of the termination of their episcopal powers unless they came to Rome within fifteen days. This also was submitted to M. Combes, who forbade the bishops leaving their posts. The cabinet has also formulated a protest, which will be forwarded to the Vatican, sgainst the effort to remove bishops without observance of the government's rights under the concordat. An answer has been received in the case of Bishop Geay, the Vatican maintaining that it was a disciplinary measure not intended to contest the state's rights under the concordat. The Matin further asserts that the dismissal of the bishops without consulting the government's wishes will be considered as a formal renunciation of the relations between church and state.
